

LOCOMUERTE

It all begins in 2009 : Locomuerte has a sole goal, do a music which comes from the heart, simple and full of energy, "con mucho corazon y muchos huevos". No showing off here, just some big sound and pleasure !!

Locomuerte is old school "Chicano" metal hardcore. Influences come from 80/90's such as Suicidal Tendencies or Agnostic Front. The spanish singing by Noxy Demente underlines the dynamic and groovy side of the tracks and gives Locomuerte a very personal and uniting sound.

In the purest "Do It Yourself" tradition, Locomuerte records its first autoproduced album, "Máquina De Guerra" in 2011. The record receives a warm welcome, 1500 copies are sold. The second album « Traición Bendición » is released in 2013. The 12 tracks are recorded and mixed by Benjamin Feuillade (Catherine Ringer); mastering is performed by Alan Douches in New York (Hatebreed, 25 ta life), and distributed by Musicast. Both albums are available on iTunes and Deezer.

Locomuerte is quickly making a name for themselves on the underground scene, and immediately receives a very positive response from public and medias. The band shares the stage with Suicidal Tendencies, Infectious Grooves, Madball, Skarhead, Dog Eat Dog, Loudblast, Lofofora or Black Bomb A.

In 2012, the band wins the final of the Myrock Battle in the Bataclan (Paris), and goes to the hellfest where he has great success. Locomuerte on stage is pure energy and "onda positiva" that makes you want to tie a bandana and go right into the mosh pit, just like in the good old days !

Locomuerte members are Noxy Demente (song), El Mitcho (guitar), Nico Loco (bass), et DevilDivo (drums).

Un Abrazo fuerte de los hermanos de Locomuerte.
